- 93TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE PAIGH SILVIO ZAVALA 2020 AWARD BY THE HISTORY COMMISSION

On February 8th, 2021, the 2020 edition Awards Ceremony of the History Commission of the Pan-American Institute of Geography and History (PAIGH), was held in commemoration of the 93 years of the creation of the Institute, and the 112th anniversary of the birth of the pillar of this Commission: Dr. Silvio Zavala (1909-2014).

The PAIGH Authorities, the representative of the Organization of American States in Mexico, Presidents of the National Sections, the representative of the Embassy of Argentina in Mexico, the president of the National Academy of History of Ecuador, members of the Jury of the Awards, the winners and applicants to the aforementioned awards, editors of the Magazines of the Institute and the Pan American Network of Historians participated in the event.

Dr. Patricia Galeana made a brief tour through the history of the PAIGH. She highlighted that it was the Mexican engineer and geographer Pedro

PAN AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF GEOGRAPHY AND HISTORY

C. Sánchez, formally suggested the creation of an institute that would help settle the border differences between countries of our American continent at the VI International American Conference in Havana, Cuba, in February 1928. At that same meeting, the Cuban delegation considered essential for the study of History to be incorporated.

It was not until 1947 when the creation of the History Commission, chaired by Dr. Silvio Zavala, materialized. The Mexican historian presided the History Commission in its first four periods (1947-1965). Over these years, he founded the Journal of American History, the Bibliographic Bulletin of American Anthropology, the American Folklore magazine, and coordinated the History of the continent in 21 volumes. Among other decisive actions for the study of the History of the Americas, Dr. Galeana closed her intervention by enunciating the actions taken to honor Dr. Zavala's work, among which the creation of the Silvio Zavala Award stands out.

The presentation of the Silvio Zavala Award for the trajectory in Colonial History of the Americas was presented by Dr. María Eugenia Zavala, member of the Jury, who recognized Dr. Hernán Silva (Argentina) as the winner.

Dr. Hernán Silva gave an acceptance speech where he mentioned that he felt he was "living every scientist dream: to feel formally recognized in his career, especially when the award comes from an international institution with a vast scientific career such as PAIGH." He offered a reflection on being a historian:

The historian does not exist as an abstract entity. Each of us responds to our belonging, our training, our values and our idiosyncrasies. Ultimately, as historians, we are marked by our own historicity.

Why am I talking about commitment as a historian? Because our profession cannot function without freedom and intellectual honesty. Because it is difficult to feel that the historical past should not only help us know our roots, but to understand, to recognize the basis of that past, how to behave in the present and to be able to project ourselves into the future.

Subsequently, Dr. Julián Castro Rea, member of the Jury of the Award for the Best Doctoral Thesis in Pan American History, presented Dr. Veremundo Carrillo Reveles (Mexico) as the winner of said distinction for his research "México en la Unión de las Repúblicas Americanas. El panamericanismo y la política exterior mexicana" .

Dr. Veremundo Carrillo commented that the origin of his research was the "interest in rethinking the traditional study of the history of international relations between the countries of the American continent. It arose from the concern to reflect and analyze the way in which States can defend their national interests and negotiate with powers that far surpass them in military, material, and financial capacities.
