• The 2018 Silvio Zavala Award, for Colonial History in the Americas

On September 18th, there was a meeting to evaluate the Silvio Zavala Award candidates we received, in honor of the founding president of the History Commission.

The jury, by unanimous decision, decided to give this Award to Dr. Oscar Mazín, as his career meets the characteristics and conditions of the call.

El jurado, por decisión unánime otorgó el premio al Dr. Oscar Mazín, por considerar que su trayectoria reúne las características y condiciones de la convocatoria.

Dr. Mazín has a Ph.D. in History from the School of Advanced Studies in the Social Sciences, France. He is currently a professor and researcher with the Historical Studies Center in El Colegio de Mexico, and he is a member of the National System of Researchers, level II.

Dr. Oscar Mazín
Among his many works, the following stand out: El Cabildo catedral de Valladolid de Michoacán (Colmex, 1996); Una ventana al mundo hispánico (Colmex, 2006) and Gestores de la real justicia (Colmex, 2007).

The Award jury was composed of Dra. María Eugenia Zavala from El Colegio de México; Dra. Johanna Von Grafenstein from the Dr. José María Luis Mora Research Institute; and Dra. Patricia Escandón from the National Autonomous University of Mexico.

The History Commission extends its deepest congratulations to Dr. Mazín.

On September 19, there was a meeting to evaluate the Pan-American Award we received, for the best doctoral thesis in the general field of American History, of the centuries 19th and 20th Centuries.

The Prize was unanimously declared void because none of the candidates registered met the requirements of the respective call.

Nevertheless, the jury decided to give a special mention to the following thesis: El martinato: configuración del autoritarismo cívico-militar, continuidad y herencia política. El Salvador 1931-1944, written by Dr. Luis Gerardo Monterrosa Cubías, and Moralización y catolicismo al arribo de la televisión. Ciudad de México y Bogotá, 1950-1965, written by Dra. Laura Camila Ramírez Bonilla, for studying the period indicated in the call and demonstrating academic merit.
