

HISTORY COMMISSION'S Bulletin

November 2018 • Bulletin 50

• 48TH MEETING OF THE DIRECTING COUNCIL

Attendees to the 48th Meeting of the Directing Council of the PAIGH

From October 22 to 25, the 48th Meeting of the Directing Council took place in the city of Santa Cruz, Bolivia.

One of the resolutions made by the Council was the modification of the Article 30 of the Publications Regulations, to avoid prior censorship in texts published by the Institute, approved by majority vote, with the exception of Chile:

CONSIDERING:

That the Regulations of Publications and Documents of the PAIGH, Article 8, numeral 3) establishes that every publication must "Contain an annotation in which the responsibility of the authors is established ..." and Article 9: "... Each Commission will be responsible for the selection of the material to be published, either for magazines or for occasional publications";

That Article 13 of the American Convention on Human Rights of the OAS establishes: "Everyone has the right to freedom of thought and expression. This right includes freedom to seek, receive, and impart information and ideas of all kinds, regardless of frontiers, either orally, in writing, in print, in the form of art, or through any other medium of one's choice".

The recommendations of the 89th and 90th Meetings of Authorities and the Administrative Policy Committee,

RESOLVES:

To modify the Article 30 of the Publications Regulations to guarantee full freedom of expression, to provide legal security, certainty and accuracy in the preparation of publications and documents, in the following terms:

Article 30. The General Secretariat and the Commissions shall ensure at all times the exercise of the freedom of expression in the publications, documents and other forms of divulgation of the authors, who are the only ones responsible for the content of their work.

Report by Dr. Patricia Galeana, president of the PAIGH's History Commission

In addition, the resolution proposal of the president of the History Commission to exhort all countries to strengthen the teaching of history was unanimously approved:

CONSIDERING:

That in all societies the knowledge of History is fundamental to define their identity as a group, as a community that shares a past, that seeks to understand its present and that aspires to have a common future;

That the outstanding philosopher Leopoldo Zea said that "If there is something that defines a man, it is history; history gives the meaning to what was done, to what is being done, and to what could be done. In the triple historical dimension, past, present and future, the being of man becomes evident."

That History strengthens the identity of Peoples and contributes to the transmission of values and experiences to comprehend the present as a process under construction;

That it is considered necessary to strengthen and update the methodology of teaching History at the basic, middle and higher educational levels;

The recommendations of the Scientific Policy Committee and the Resolutions Coordinator Committee,

RESOLVES:

To recommend to the Member States' competent authorities the strengthening of the teaching of History at the basic, middle and higher educational levels, due to its importance for national identity and citizen education.

With these important steps, the PAIGH advances to a new culture of respect for freedom of expression and historical awareness.
