Rubén Ruiz, Vice President of the History Commission; Dra. Alexandra Pita, editor of the Journal of History of The Americas.

On November 27th, the History Commission of the Pan-American Institute of Geography and History (PAIGH) held a ceremony at the National Institute of Historical Studies on the Revolutions of Mexico (INEHRM) to announce the 2018 "Silvio Zavala" Award on Colonial History in the Americas, as well as to award an honorable mention to the best doctoral thesis in Pan American History.

HISTORY COMMISSION

PAN AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF GEOGRAPHY AND HISTORY

The Ceremony was presided by Mag. César Rodríguez Tomeo, General Secretary of the PAIGH, and Dr. Patricia Galeana, president of the History Commission. They were accompanied by Dr. María Eugenia Zavala, member of the jury for The 2018 "Silvio Zavala" Award on Colonial History in the Americas; Dr. Mario Vázquez Olivera, member of the Jury of "the best doctoral thesis in Pan American History Award"; Rubén Ruiz, Vice President of the History Commission, and Dr. Alexandra Pita, editor of the Journal of History of The Americas.

Dr. Patricia Galeana introduced the Ceremony, in her role as General Director of the INEHRM and as the host of the event, and also as President of the History Commission. Subsequently, she introduced the semblance of Dr. Silvio Zavala, who was the founder of this Commission, and whose award in Colonial History is given in his honor.

Dr. Galeana pointed out that Dr. Zavala is internationally recognized as the one who set off the study of the scientific history of the Americas, and he dedicated a great part of his life to the study, diffusion and promotion of Pan-Americanism.

Thereafter, Dr. Alexandra Pita, editor of the Journal of History of The Americas, presented the new issue of the Journal dedicated to Dr. Zavala.

Later, Dr. Mario Vázquez Olivera, in representation of the Jury of "The best doctoral thesis in Pan American History Award," presented the process of deliberation and selection of this year's Award. He pointed out that despite having received many dissertations of great academic quality, none of them reflected the spirit of the award. Regardless, the jury decided to give two honorable mentions to the following dissertation: "Moralización y catolicismo al arribo de la televisión. Ciudad de México y Bogotá, 1950-1965" by Dr. Laura Camila Ramírez Bonilla, from Colombia, and "El martinato: configuración del autoritarismo cívico-militar, continuismo y herencia política. El Salvador 1931-1944" by Dr. Luis Gerardo Monterrosa Cubías, from El Salvador.

Subsequently, Dr. María Eugenia Zavala introduced The 2018 "Silvio Zavala" Award on Colonial History in the Americas. She said that Dr. Óscar Adolfo Mazín Gómez fully deserves this Award for the relevance and importance of his work and his remarkable contributions to the development of the Colonial History of the Americas. After that, César Rodríguez Tomeo, General Secretary of the PAIGH, proceeded to confer the Award.

In his speech, Dr. Mazín stated that "the history of the Americas cannot be thought of or elaborated as a simple compendium of national histories, not even in the 19th and 20th centuries. Drawing on the legacy of Dr. Silvio Zavala, I emphasize the need for a systematic comparison, not mere juxtaposition".
